About Oliver:

Oliver's birthday is December 27th. His favorite class is wood shop where he enjoys building different projects. When he grows up he hopes to be a pediatrician, but for now enjoys spending time playing with friends or drawing after class.

Current Living Situation:

The family lives in a house made of wood and tin and dirt floors. It is a family that lives in extreme poverty with no electricity, water, or plumbing. They use an outhouse and cook over an open fire. The father's other children apart from those listed above also live in the same house with their families.
